

Marcilio Lopes

Mandolin player

Born in Cabo Frío, Rio de Janeiro, he learned to play string instruments from an early age. Marcilio has played the mandolin with the groups “Choro Brazil-Scandinavia” and “Agua de Moringa” (2005), and with the group “Calderreta Carioca” (2006), with a repertoire of jazz and Brazilian popular music. He regularly takes part in workshops talking about the choro rhythm and music of Brazil, sponsored by the Danish World Music Association. He has also given Master classes in Sweden. He is fully booked to perform in the Jazz Festival of Denmark. He has extensively toured Denmark, Sweden, France, Germany and Brazil.

Ticket Office
0871 663 2500

Book online

southbankcentre.co.uk

Booking fee applies per transaction