EKACHAI JEARAKUL

He is recognized as one of Thailand's finest classical guitarists. Ekachai was born in 1987 in Ubonratchathani and at the age of 13 entered the Yamaha School of Music, to study guitar with Professor Kiattipong Tangsakul. Whilst studying at the Mahidol University, three years later won his first junior category prize at an International Guitar Competition organised in Thailandia (2003). He continued his studies at the Benchama Maharat School of Music (Ubon) and after finishing here, moved to Bangkok for he wanted to perfect his playing to become a worldwide first class guitar player. He is known for developing a unique and individual repertoire for the guitar.

Ekachai has attended Master classes with renowned masters of the instrument, such as, Carlo Domenicone, Alvaro Pieri, Scott Tennant, Shinji Fakuda, Pavel Steidl, Kantona Twin and many others and has also participated in several international guitar festivals and competitions winning first prizes in Mexico, (2010), Rome, (2010), France, (2010) and Austria (2010), Ukraine. (2009), Germany, (2008), Singapore, (2008), Russia, (2007) etc.

Ekachai is currently studying in Austria.
