The guitarist Žarko Ignjatović graduated at the Academy of Music in Zagreb (Croatia) under prof. Darko Petrinjak and at the Hochschule für Musik und darstellende Kunst in Graz (Austria) in the class of prof. Marga Bäuml-Klasinc.

He completed his post-graduate studies at the Salzburg “Mozarteum” under prof. Eliot Fisk.

He also took part in numerous masterclasses all around the world (held by Julian Bream, John Williams, etc.) and won many prizes at national competitions.

He teaches at the Secondary Music School in Ljubljana and at the Pedagogical Faculty in Maribor (Slovenia). He is also president of the Slovenian Guitar Teachers Association (EGTA). He has been constantly developing his activities as a soloist as well as a member of chamber groups.

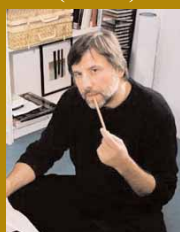

He has performed with cellist Nebojša Bugarski since 1993, with flautist Cveto Kobal since 1994 and in a guitar duo with guitarist Jerko Novak since 2001.

His first solo CD with compositions by Weiss, Piazzolla, Tippett, Bogdanović and Rojko came out in 1998, the second one, “Hic et Nunc”, with contemporary Slovene music in 2001. He also appeared on Cveto Kobal’s CD, “20th Century Flute Music” published in 2003. At the moment he is working on a new CD with Jerko Novak (already recorded in 2004, works by Johnson, Sor, Mertz, Granados, De Falla, Novak, York and Piazzolla) and with Nebojša Bugarski. The latter will contain two world first performances – compositions by Dušan Bogdanović and Marcelo Nisinman and was published in 2005.
